

Concorso riservato agli Autori di Chemistry-A European Journal in occasione del 25mo Anniversario

Chemistry-A European Journal has organized a video competition. We would like to ask you to spread the information within your societies and your members, so that all members of Chemistry Europe know about it. Maybe some of them might be interested in joining us in celebrating our 25th Anniversary and participate in our short-video scientific competition! Please feel free to use the following promotional text for the website, newsletter and/or magazine in your society: Create your own video about your research published in Chemistry - A European Journal during the last 25 years and get a chance to win up to 500 euros and much more!

The deadline is October 30, find out more about how to participate by following the link: www.chemeurj.org/25
